

I do not want telemarketers to be able to call me. Since going on the no-call list, my life at home with my 2 small children has been so much nice without the interruption of unwanted telemarketing calls.